Policies

I have read, understand and agree to comply with and support the following Camp Policies. I understand that the following list of policies does not constitute the entire list of Camp policies and behaviors that I or my child must comply with.

GRATUITIES: Tipping or the giving of any gratuities to any staff member, in whatever manner or fashion, is strictly prohibited.

PACKAGES: There are NO packages and NO bunk gifts. Campers with a birthday during camp will be allowed 1 non-food package. Essential items (sports equipment, batteries, toiletries, medication, glasses, etc.) can be sent to the camp director's attention and will be delivered to campers. Other than Visiting Day, absolutely NO FOOD whatsoever can be sent to camp. NO gum is ever permitted – even on Visiting Day.

PHONE CALLS: Each camper is entitled to one phone call home during the summer. An extra call is provided on a camper's birthday. Campers may call each parent separately ONLY when the parents live separately. Weekly calls are approximately eight minutes in length. Request for change of phone arrangements made in advance, will be accommodated. The Camp will endeavor to find a reasonable and convenient, non-activity, time for each camper to phone home, where both parents can be available, if the designated time is not going to be convenient.

CELL PHONES & OTHER ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT: Cell phones are not permitted in Camp and on Camp sponsored trips. The Camp may, at its discretion, hold cell phones or other similar devices. Confiscated cell phones may be picked up at the end of Camp. Possession of a cell phone-type device may, at the discretion of the Director, result in a three-day suspension from camp. Almost every type of electronic device is not allowed at Camp. As a rule, any item that can: send or receive a phone call or text messages, play a DVD, access the Internet, has WiFi connectivity or can send/receive e-mail is not permitted at Camp. Hand held electronic games, iPods, or other expensive equipment are discouraged. Campers are advised that they are both unnecessary and run counter to the social interactions that are the main goal of attending camp. The Camp is not responsible for the damage, theft or other loss of any personal items.

OTHER ITEMS: Any item deemed dangerous or hazardous is not permitted in Camp. Flat irons, curling irons, clothing irons, cooking apparatus, hot pots, etc. and other equipment that requires an electrical outlet (other than a hair blower, radio or similar device) are not permitted in Camp. All prescription and non-prescription medication must be stored in the Health Center or, with Director's permission, the Head Counselor's office. Exceptions will be made for inhalers and other, similar, immediate-use items on a case by case basis with safety protocols in place. The Camp is not responsible for the damage, theft or other loss of any personal items.

RAID POLICY: Campers are not permitted out of their cabin, unsupervised, either after curfew or before reveille. Campers found to be not in their beds or out of their cabins during that time will be considered "raiding". Campers determined to have been "raiding" will be immediately dismissed without exception. There are absolutely NO REFUNDS whatsoever for dismissal from camp for "raiding".

CONTRABAND: Campers who use or are in possession of any tobacco, alcohol or illegal substance, or weaponry of any type will be immediately dismissed without exception. There are absolutely NO REFUNDS whatsoever for dismissal from Camp for use or possession of contraband.
